Description	The Innovation Jam is a 60 minute workshop run by League of Innovators, a national charity mobilizing the next generation of entrepreneurs and innovators. The focus of the Innovation Jam is to examine the concept and process of innovation within the context of business. This hands-on session will challenge attendees to solve a unique problem of their own and go from idea to execution in any area of their life. Workshop led by Marlon Thompson, the Director of Programs at League of Innovators.		This workshop would consist of two to three stations that would each contain a major African ingredient or produce that is commonly exported to Canada. Each station would inform the event participants about the export and provide samples. Before the workshop comes to a close, a small quiz will be facilitated for each station and reward the winner with a prize.
